

The NATO CALS mission is to increase interoperability, decrease defence equipment life-cycle costs, ensure the readiness of NATO forces and decrease acquisition lead times by facilitating continuous improvement of business processes through the use of international standards and practices, application of advanced tools and technologies, and increased cooperation with industry, thereby creating an opportunity for NATO industry to enhance its global competitiveness.